TRINITY TRIBUNE

FROM THE HEAD OF PRIMARY

It's reporting time! Our wonderful Trinity teachers have been busy assessing, moderating, assigning marks and writing comments for each child in their class. This is a job that takes many, many hours outside of the normal workday to complete, so if our staff are looking a little weary, you'll know why. Reports will be sent out at the end of Week 10. As usual, please take the time to discuss your child's report with them, focusing on successes and highlighting areas for improvement. This is a great opportunity to make a goal for Semester Two.

With the spate of cooler weather, I have noticed a lot of students wearing non-uniform jumpers. While we appreciate there are occasions uniforms aren't available due to weather or even growth spurts, we appreciate students making the effort to wear something in line with the colour and style of our uniform.

Talking of uniforms, have you noticed our Year 6 students in their new Senior polos? Bold and striking, just like our Primary leaders. I think they look amazing.

This term has been busy and eventful, and we are all ready for a rest. Term Two ends on Friday 25 June with a free dress day. Students and staff are encouraged to wear blue in thankfulness for Mrs Maisano's miraculous recovery. A gold coin donation will be taken, with all funds going to the Salvation Army to assist with their work with local families.

We are looking forward to Term 3 with our School Musical, Annie, being a highlight, as well as some exciting whole school activities being planned for later in the year

YEAR FIVE - STRIKE ZONE

This week the Year 5 chairs went on strike. They were tired of feet being put on them, the swinging, not being tucked in and being dragged around. Students had to write a persuasive letter to get them back. Students had to be creative in how they could get their work done without their chair.

It's us, the chairs. We NEED to talk. Can you guess why? We have to tell you that we have had ENOUGH. We don't feel that you treat us kindly or show us enough respect. All day long we work hard to give you a nice place to rest your bottom and you treat us so poorly. Don't you know how tired we get?

Sometimes you put your feet on us. How do you think that makes us feel? Some of you rock on us and that makes us feel dizzy and unstable. Sometimes your teacher even STANDS on us to reach something high. Most of you aren't even kind enough to push us in after you are finished with us. We are sick of being dragged around the floor. Can't you pick us up to tuck us in?

We're tired of you treating us so badly, so we have gone on strike! Let's see how you like it. We hope that we can come back soon, when you have apologized. We just want to be treated kindly. It isn't too much to ask, is it?

From your classmates,

YEAR 12 VISUAL ARTS

Our Year 12 Art students invited their parents, some of our teachers and students to participate in their Interactive Installations event this week Tuesday. This was an opportunity for them to showcase their final artwork for IA2. Each student formulated a focus question around their inquiry question about Gladstone, the industry and art.
