

Week 6 | Term 1 | 2022

TRINITY TRIBUNE

FROM THE DEPUTY PRINCIPAL

This pandemic has certainly created some challenges for us again this year.

These challenges continue to grow us and strengthen our tenacity and resolve. I want to mention how proud we are of how our students have been able to adjust to any any changes to learning that has been presented and how students are able to stay positive and keep going independent of challenges thrust upon them in these circumstances.

This term this has also presented some very real challenges for us having you all our beloved parents and community on site, with limited participation in our assemblies, chapels and elsewhere. Sadly, this has meant many school events have had to be either cancelled or been solely for student and staff only.

We are hopeful that Term 2 will see improvements and look very different, as parents are welcomed back on site in full participation, volunteering and raring to go for the rest of the year. We hope we finally see the silver lining on some dark hovering clouds.

In preparation for Term 2, I had the opportunity of meeting with our Year 12 captains and go over the importance of the role they have in 2022 and they will be stepping into their roles in a significant way in coming weeks, by attending staff meetings, convening teams and being mentored by their Executive leader oversights.

The captains were reminded that:

- God has chosen them and has equipped them with the skills they need to be effective leaders.
- Leadership is all about serving others and being a great example of the real them as they leave a legacy through what they do this year.
- Our captains have committed to lead with integrity and purity of heart which includes being genuine, real, showing integrity, demonstrating Christ in all they do.

We are really looking forward to working with this amazing group of student leaders.

Our Kindy students having lots of fun in their Physical Education lesson.

Shalom Mangweza, Jamee Nankervis, Matthys Nelson, Mickyle Traut and Zion Cordero.

Please have a safe and restful break as we head into holidays at the end of next week and be blessed in all you do. Stay healthy!

What's been happening in Kindy?

This term we have been learning about the Fruits of the Spirit and how to show them to our friends and family. The Fruits are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness and self-control.

Our Kindy children have brainstormed ideas on how to show these fruits to others and have made patience popsicles by blending different coloured fruit to make rainbow popsicles and then having patience waiting for them to set and then eat them. Children have also done some citrus painting using fruit to create a picture to remind them of all the Fruits of the Spirit. They also tasted different fruits gently and painted rainbows to remind them of God's faithfulness. We have read stories about each Fruit of the Spirit and learnt a song about it too. We have watched short videos of Bible characters showing the Fruits of the Spirit, such as Abraham and Sarah who waited patiently for their baby.

The Kindy children are learning that God is good, faithful and loves each and every one of us.
